

International count supervisor

- On the polling day I observed elections at polling stations in country A
- I trained electoral workers in the counting of ballots
- I supervised a team of ten local electoral workers who performed count of around 15.000 ballots
- I performed reconciliation of results and reported them to the Results Entry Team
- I assisted other international count supervisors during the intake of ballots, counting, audit, and tabulation of results