About the Applicant Guide

This is a living document. It reflects the required processes and recommended best practices to apply to positions within the United Nations using inspira. Its contents are subject to change in response to revisions of the Administrative Instruction on the Internship Programme, lessons learnt from surveys and evaluations and reporting requirements.

Job opening in the UN

In the employment of its staff, the United Nations strives to meet the highest standards of efficiency, competence and integrity to deliver on its promise in achieving the goals of peace, inclusive sustainable development and human rights for all. Consultants, individual contractors, interns and United Nations Volunteers are also engaged to support various aspects of the organization's work.

The United Nations Careers Portal provides details on the different opportunities and currently available job openings at the United Nations. This guide briefly highlights the nature and context of those opportunities and provides instructions on how to apply for jobs with an emphasis on staff positions.

Staff categories

Positions in different staff categories are advertised on the United Nations Careers Portal.

Type of Recruitment	Description
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Professional and higher categories - Internationally recruited staff performing analytical and conceptual work, normally outside of the country of origin and with the expectation to move geographically throughout their career. • Field Service category - Internationally recruited staff in field operations whose functions range from procedural, operational and technical to analytical and conceptual.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • National Professional Officers category - Nationals and permanent residents of the country of service performing analytical and conceptual work within a national context. • General Service category - Staff whose functions range from routine or repetitive to complex and paraprofessional. • Trade and Crafts category - Drivers, electricians, building management staff in New York. • Security Service category - Security officers in New York. • Public Information Assistants category - Tour guides in New York. • Language Teachers category - Language teachers in New York and Geneva.

The movement of staff members from the Field Service category up to the FS-5 level and the General Service and related categories (other than the National Professional Officer category) to the Professional category in the United Nations is exclusively allowed through the Young Professionals Programme competitive examinations. The announcements for these examinations are published on the United Nations Careers Portal.

Job opening types

Job openings are usually advertised to fill specific positions which are available for a period of one year or longer.

Some job openings in field operations are only open to rostered candidates who have been preapproved for selection, as explained in Application result: Rostered. These job openings are called recruit from roster job openings. To be preapproved for selection in field operations, applicants may apply for generic job openings which are advertised for that purpose.

Temporary job openings are advertised to fill staff positions available for less than one year. The position may be temporary due to budget constraints or limited duration of need.

Non-staff opportunities

Opportunities for consultant and individual contractor contracts may also be advertised on the United Nations Careers Portal.

Consultants are engaged in an advisory or consultative capacity to provide specialized skills or knowledge not normally possessed by staff.

Individual contractors may be engaged to perform staff-like work, such as translation, editing or part-time maintenance.

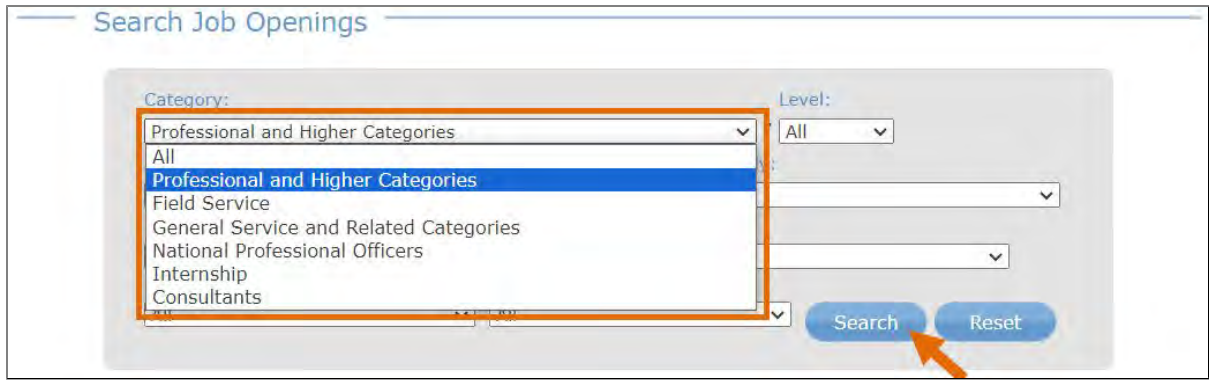

Undergraduate students in their final year of studies and graduate students wishing to enhance their educational experience and gain experience in the work of the United Nations may apply for internships on the United Nations Careers Portal. Interns work full-time for two to six months. Interns are not paid.

United Nations Volunteers are individuals who volunteer for at least six months and who are deployed mainly to support field operations. Many of them already have relevant expertise and several years of work experience. United Nations Volunteers receive an allowance. For further information on United Nations Volunteers and on how to apply for these opportunities, visit the United Nations Volunteers webpage.

Finding job openings

The United Nations Careers Portal is the right place to start looking for opportunities in the United Nations. Applicants may also access job openings through inspira, the United Nations' talent management platform. While both websites may be used to browse and search job openings, applicants must create an account in inspira to submit applications.

From the United Nations Careers Portal scroll to the Search Job Openings section, applicants may conduct an open search or enter search criteria such as the job category. Click Search and browse job openings.

Click on the job title to learn more about the position.

The United Nations Careers Portal is available in both English and French. Applicants can change the language by clicking Français or English on the top right side of the browser page.

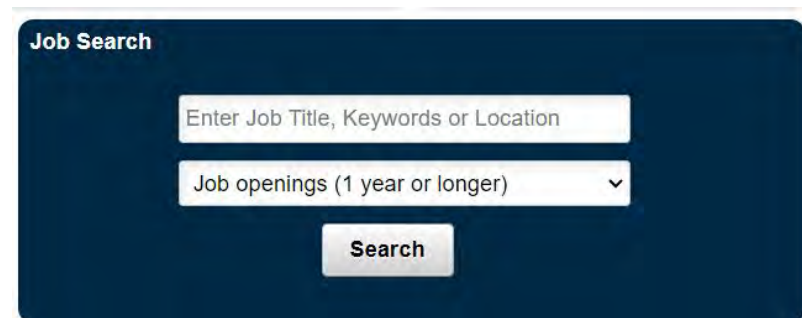

To search job openings in inspira, applicants need an account. If they already have an account, they may log in to inspira by entering the username and password. Otherwise, applicants should create an account according to the instructions provided in the Opening an Account section.

Inspira is available in both English and French. Applicants can change the language by clicking Français or English below the login button.

After logging in, enter keywords such as job title or duty station in the Job Search tile of the Applicant / Staff Member Activity Center to look for job openings (1 year or longer) or temporary job openings (less than 1 year). Click Search.

For an advanced search, use the expanded set of search fields to locate job openings using any combination of keyword, category, level, time of posting, job network, job family and duty station. Click the job title to learn more about the position.

Need help?

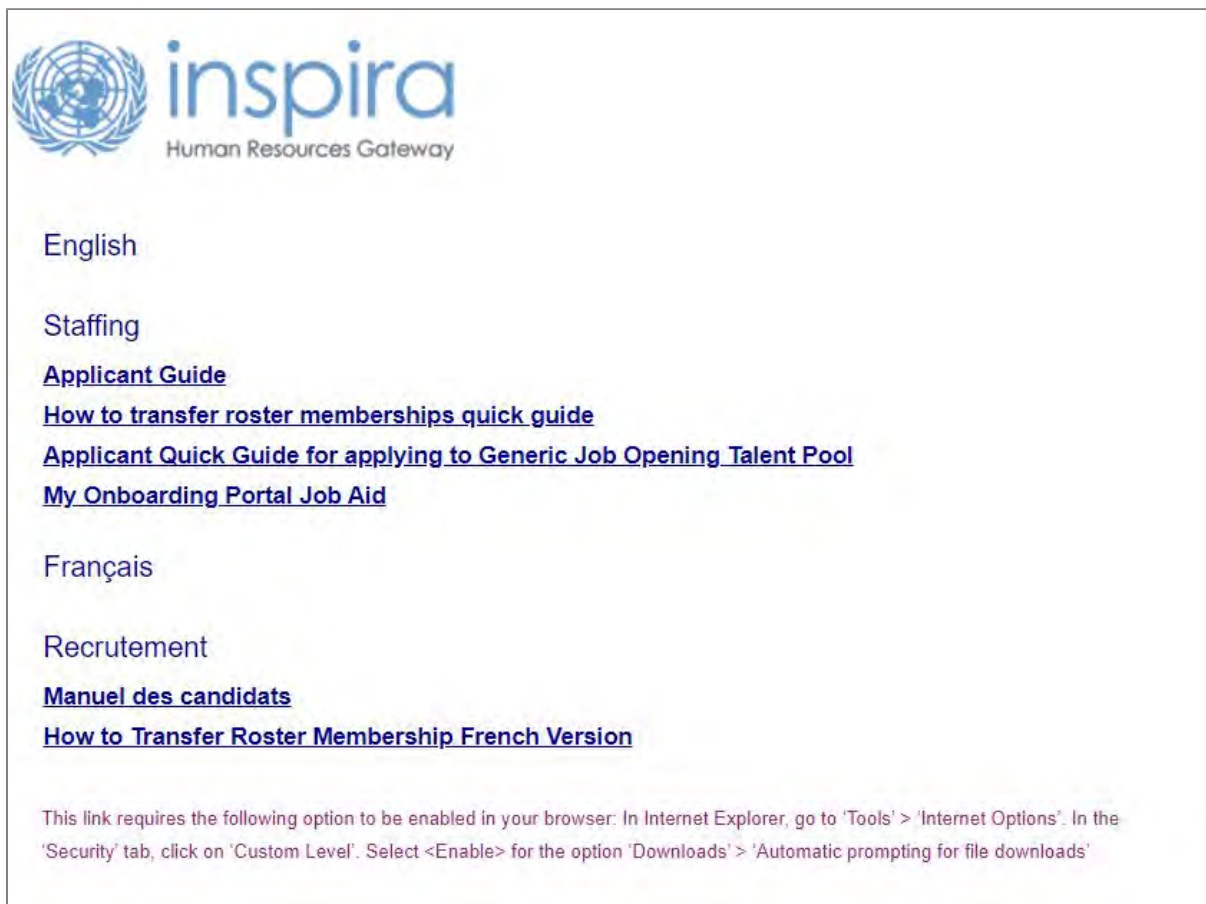

Applicants may seek assistance or send in any queries by clicking Contact Us located in the Help tile.

On the Contact us page, applicants will find frequently asked questions (FAQs) per category (such as Application process enquirey, Login or registration enquirey, UN Careers website enquirey, Accessibility, and E-Learning enquirey) and subcategory. Otherwise, applicants may submit a specific inquiry by clicking Contact Us .

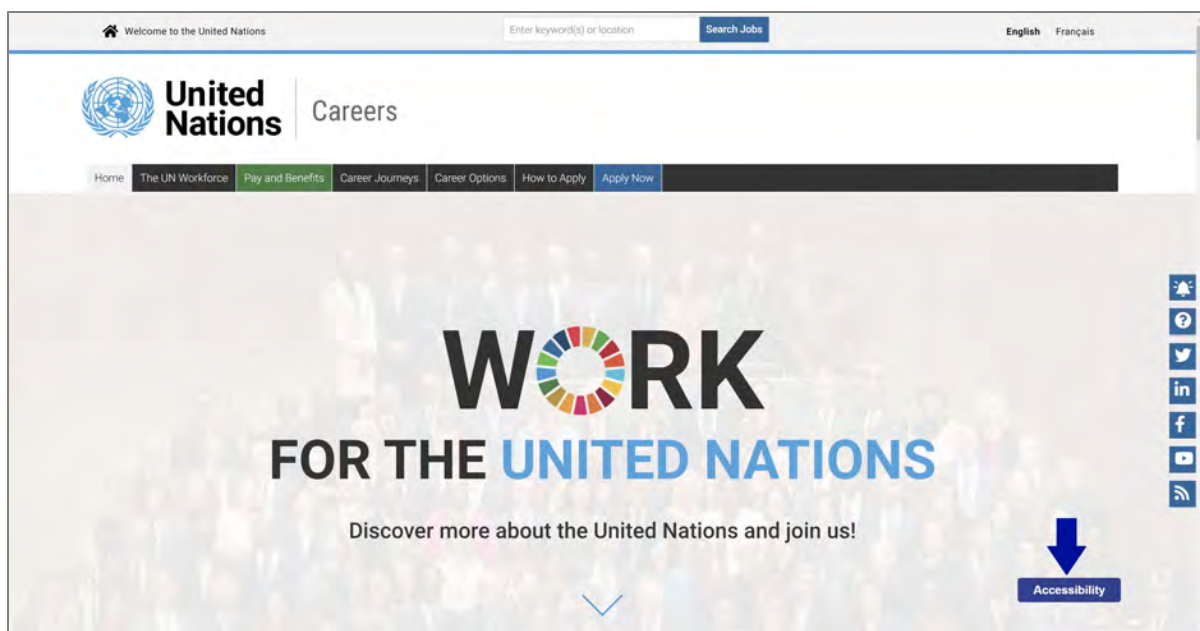

Applicants may also find assistance in the manuals available to them by clicking on the Manuals link in the Help tile.

Accessibility

Accessibility features are available on both the United Nations Careers Portal and inspira to assist persons with disabilities. This accessibility menu can be read by assistive screen readers (e.g. JAWS, NVDA).

To turn on the accessibility features, click the grey Accessibility button located on the upper-left side of the browser for the Careers Portal and at the bottom-right side of the browser for Inspira.

Applicants other than United Nations Secretariat staff members

Employee accounts for the United Nations staff members

Applicants other than United Nations Secretariat staff members

Applicants need to create an account, unless they are staff members of the United Nations Secretariat or other United Nations and related organizations adopting inspira as their talent management platform.

Employee accounts for the United Nations staff members

Staff members are issued employee accounts when they join the United Nations Secretariat. The same applies to staff members of other United Nations and related organizations adopting inspira as their talent management platform.

The employee account information is sent to staff members via an automatic e-mail notification. Staff members are required to use this account to apply for job openings. Former staff members may continue to use these accounts following separation.

Creating an Inspira account

Go to inspira and click Create account here.

Enter the given and family name, password, primary e-mail and date of birth. Once the account is created, the date of birth cannot be changed.

Click Register. The system will automatically create a User ID. It will be e-mailed to the applicant, but it is advisable to write it down for ease of reference.

Click on the video to learn How to create an inspira account.

Log in to inspira and update profile information

Once an account has been created or issued, enter the User ID and Password and click Login.

For the first login, applicants should update their profile by clicking My Profile at the top of the inspira home page. The mandatory fields of My Profile must be completed before submitting any application.

In Personal Details of the My Profile page, applicants must ensure that their contact information including telephone number, e-mail address, and physical addresses are current. Hiring managers may try to reach them via phone and e-mail.

In Nationality & Residence, a copy of the personal details page of the applicant's passport containing the photo and biographical data should be uploaded, unless the applicant is a current employee. If a passport is not readily available, the applicant may provide another travel document or photo ID.

Click on the video to learn How to navigate the inspira landing page.

Transferring roster membership from external account to employee account

To transfer roster memberships acquired on an external account to an employee account, on the Staff Member Activity Center page you can do so through the Main Menu or the My Roster Memberships tile.

From the main menu:

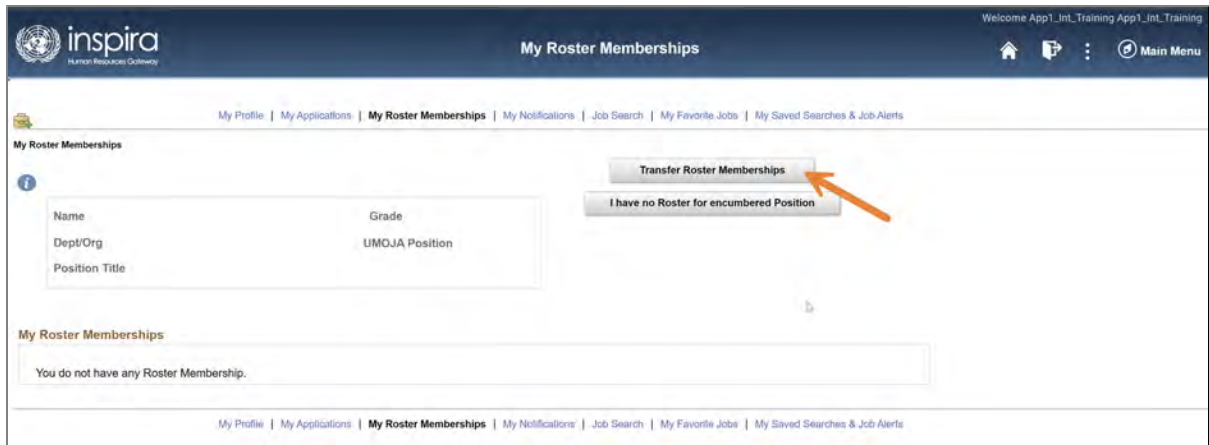

- Click on Main Menu>My Career and Learning>My Roster Membership.
- Click on Transfer my Roster Memberships.

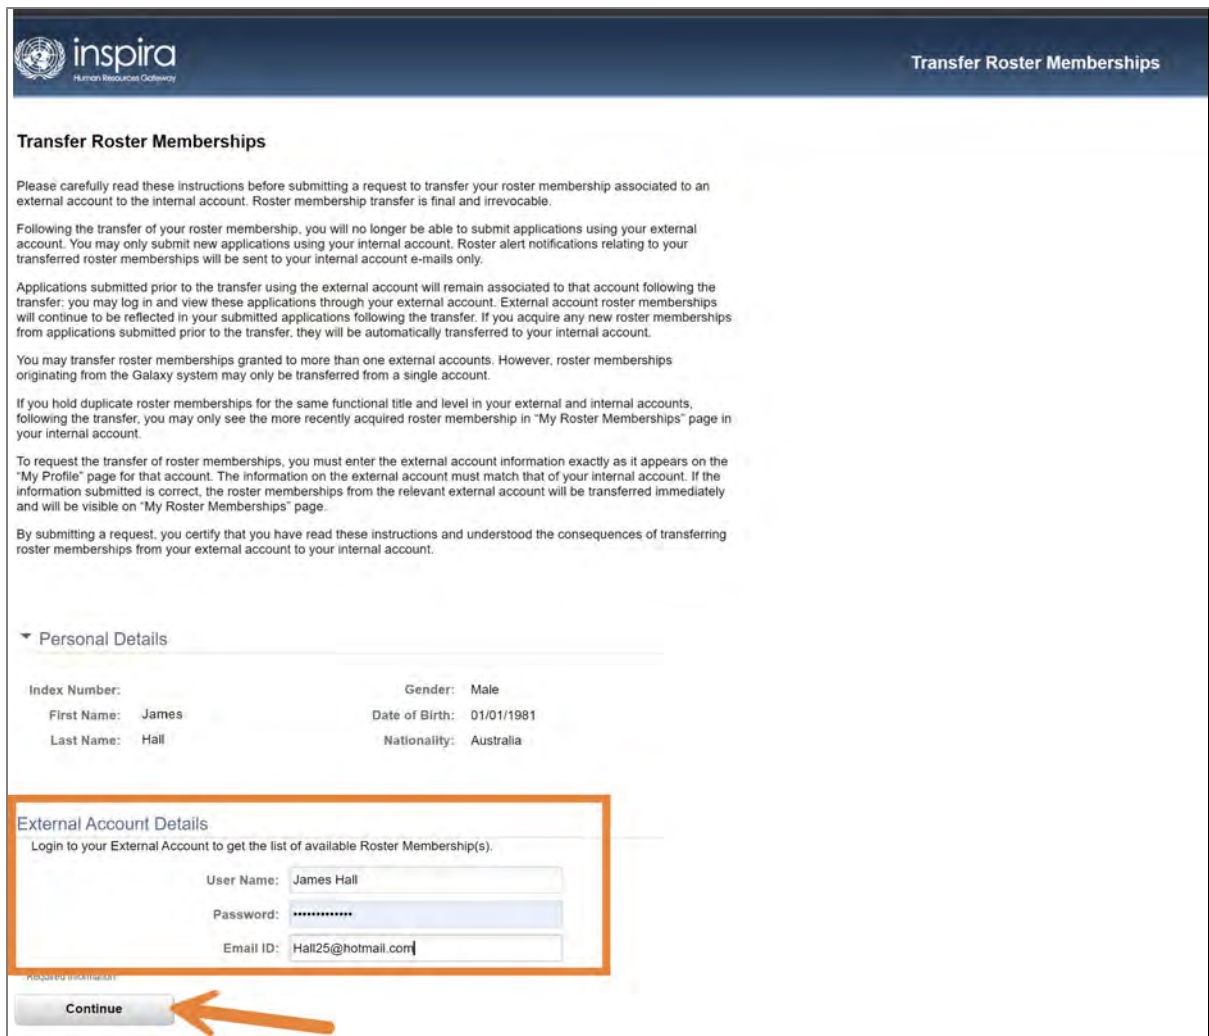

From the Home Page, click on the My Roster Memberships tile.

On the My Roster Management page, click on the Transfer Roster Memberships button. If the applicant is not on a Roster, they can click on the I have no Roster for encumbered Position button. Applicants should complete their employee account profiles prior to initiating the transfer and follow the instructions to verify that they are the owner of both accounts.

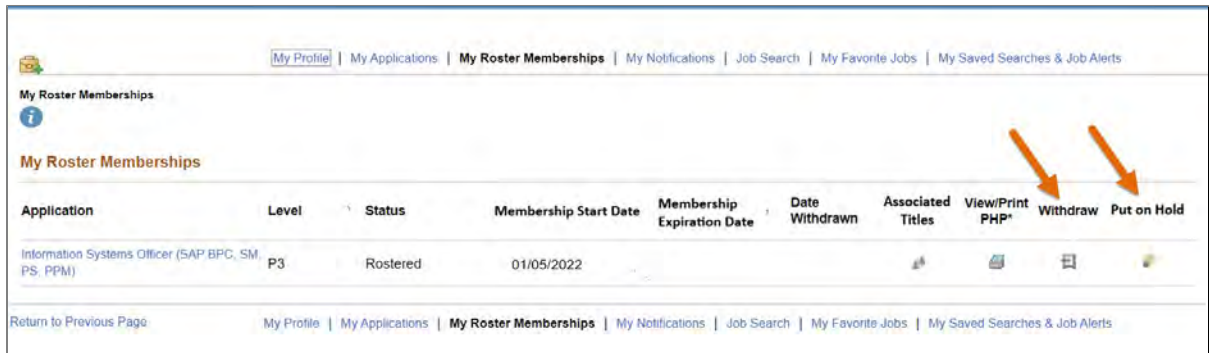

Enter the External Account Details and click on the Continue button.

After transferring the roster memberships from an external account, applicants will not be able to submit new applications using the external account. This will not affect applications which have already been submitted from the external account prior to the transfer. Applicants will continue to receive status updates of the submitted applications in the external account. Any roster memberships subsequently obtained after the transfer in the external account will be automatically transferred to the employee account.

Application	Level	Status	Membership Start Date	Membership Expiration Date	Date Withdrawn	Associated Titles	View/Print PHP*	Withdraw	Put on Hold
Information Systems Officer (SAP, BPC, SM, PS, PPM)	P3	Rostered	01/05/2022

For external accounts with roster memberships, changes to the first name and given name are not possible. External account holders with roster memberships who wish to change their names in inspira should raise a support ticket and provide documentation to evidence the name changes.

Applying to job openings

Applicants will be asked to provide details and documentation pertaining to their educational background, work experience, language proficiency, knowledge and skills, publications, certifications, and training. It is important for applicants to elaborate in the application that they satisfy the criteria specified in the job opening. The United Nations may screen applicants through automatic screening, manual review, and other evaluation methods.

Assessing qualifications

Once applicants have found a job opening that is of interest to them, they should pay special attention to the criteria specified for education, work experience, languages, and competencies. Applicants are encouraged to apply for job openings for which they at least meet the “required” criteria and have previously demonstrated the specified competencies.

The criteria indicated as “required” are mandatory to be considered for the job opening. The criteria which are specified as “desirable” are not mandatory. However, some or all desirable criteria may be necessary for applicants to be shortlisted.

Applicants should also pay attention to the competencies stated in the job openings. Applicants may be assessed to determine if they have these competencies through different evaluation and assessment methodologies including a competency-based interview.

High school diploma and degrees must be issued by academic institutions which are accredited to issue them by the competent authorities where the institutions are based. The ultimate decision on their recognition and equivalency is made by the United Nations upon the review of the nature, level, context and content of the education programme and accreditation status of the issuing institution.

Many universities and degrees are searchable from the preloaded database in the application form. In case a university or degree cannot be found and the United Nations has not otherwise recognized the degree, applicants should confirm the accreditation status of the institution and degree through the institution itself and the appropriate ministry of education and accreditation bodies. After confirming that the institution is accredited to issue the specific degree, applicants may list the degree by selecting “Other/I cannot find my school” in the field for Name of Institution. Applicants should then select the second option from the dropdown, as shown below, and manually enter the name of the institution.

Languages

Applicants should indicate their proficiency level for the languages specified in the job opening including their mother tongue. Applicants will not be considered for job openings if they do not indicate proficiency in the required languages. Generally, fluency in either English or French, the two working languages of the United Nations Secretariat, is required for any job openings.

To be considered fluent in a language, the proficiency level in all four specified areas (i.e. reading, speaking, understanding and writing) must be “fluent.” To be considered to have knowledge in a language, the proficiency level in at least two out of the four specified areas must be “confident” or “fluent.”

Work experience

In the Experience/References step of the application, click Add Experience/References and fill the information in the entry form. Include all relevant work experience in the application.

In the Summary of duties field, applicants should make sure to describe their duties. Describe also any managerial responsibilities and the number and kind of employees directly supervised.

Applicants should provide the contact information of their employers and supervisors. The United Nations may contact them for employment record verification and qualitative reference checks. If the applicants do not wish the United Nations to contact their current employer and supervisor, they may so indicate for the current work experience. However, if they are selected for a job opening, their current employer and supervisor will be contacted.

Submitting the application

Applicants should review their application carefully before submitting it. Once the application has been submitted, applicants will not be able to make changes to it. They may withdraw an application, but they cannot apply to the same job opening again.

Applicants give consent to reference verification at the time of submitting the application. The United Nations and its authorized service providers may contact the academic institutions, employers, supervisors, references, organizations of the United Nations system and other international organizations and governments and investigate if the applicants meet the highest standards of efficiency, competence and integrity standards required for employment with the United Nations. When applicants specifically express their consent to contacting the current employer and supervisor in the application, they may be contacted at any stage of the recruitment process. Selected applicants may not have the option of opting out of reference verification with the current employers and supervisors.

If applicants need to update their profile, they may save the application and go to My Profile. After they have updated their profile, they may retrieve the application by clicking on My Applications in the inspira home page.

Using offline application

While it is easier to fill out the application online, applicants who do not have stable internet connection may use the offline application form. As the first step, applicants should download the latest version of the template using the link in the Application Guidelines tile of the Staff Member or Applicant activity center page. Only the latest version can be uploaded back to inspira.

To start an offline application, applicants should create a draft application or an application for a specific job opening, and in step 1 of the application process (Welcome), the applicant can also download the Offline Application Template.

Download Offline Application Template

The offline application template is intended to assist applicants in the event they are unable to complete their application online. For example, if you are facing an interruption of internet connectivity during the application process, you may prefer to use the offline application template to complete application offline and then upload it into inspira later.

However, please note that the offline application template does not replace the on-line application process. To apply to a job opening, you will need to log in into inspira and, when prompted in the application process, choose the option "Load from File" to upload the completed offline application template. The United Nations only accepts applications uploaded through the inspira online recruitment system. Email applications are not accepted. You should ensure to upload this offline application template promptly after completing it as the content of the template is updated periodically. Only the latest version of the template is accepted by inspira.

After successfully uploading the offline application template for a specific job opening back into inspira, you must answer the Job Requirements questions online. These questions are specific to the job opening to which you are applying and must be answered before submitting your application. Once you upload your offline application template successfully for the first time, it will be stored in the inspira system. You may then apply faster online by choosing the option "Replicate from an existing or previous application" when applying to future subsequent job openings.

Please note that the offline application template does not include accessibility features such as the ability to function with a wide range of standard assistive technologies (e.g. screen readers and alternative keyboards). To have full access to these accessibility features, please apply through the inspira online page and turn on the "Accessibility" button.

Download Offline Application Template

Cancel

Follow the instructions provided in the offline application template and fill out the form.

While applying for a job opening, choose the "Load from File" option in step 2 of the application process (Welcome). Once the template has been uploaded, complete the remaining steps to submit the application.

Evaluation and assessment

After submitting the application, applicants may go through various stages of evaluation and assessment.

Automatic and manual screening

Evaluation

Assessments

C Competency-based interviews

Automatic and manual screening

Upon submission, applications go through an automatic screening process in inspira based on a set of pre-established rules on age, academic qualifications, length of work experience, family relationships, criminal record and others according to the United Nations Staff Regulations and Rules, applicable policies and requirements of the job opening. In some cases, the United Nations may conduct manual reviews requiring applicants to respond in a timely manner.

Evaluation

The hiring managers evaluate the released applicants and create a shortlist of applicants based on the criteria specified in the job opening.

Assessments

Shortlisted applicants may be invited to participate in assessments such as written exercises, presentations, technical tests, knowledge-based interview, competency-based interviews or other assessments.

Assessments are normally scheduled for a specific date and time slot. Applicants who do not respond to invitations or cannot be reached by e-mail or phone in a timely manner, or do not participate in assessments will be disqualified.

Applicants should follow all instructions. Failing to do so including missing the deadline for submitting the response may lead to disqualification. Cheating will immediately disqualify the applicants from further consideration.

Competency-based interviews

For job openings and generic job openings, the competency-based interview is a preferred assessment methodology. Only a select number of applicants are invited for this interview. The goal of this interview is to gather objective evidence of the applicants' competencies through their past behaviour and performance.

Before the interview, applicants should familiarize themselves with the indicators of each competency stipulated in the job opening and think about the past examples where they demonstrated those indicators.

During the interview, the interview panel normally consisting of three United Nations staff members including the hiring manager, will ask for examples when they have demonstrated the competencies, particularly how they handled or addressed a situation or task. Applicants may be asked to give both positive and negative examples for some of the competencies. These questions are called behavioural questions. Appraisal and comparison questions may be used to obtain further insight on the applicant's behaviours. Several probing or follow-up questions may also be asked until the interview panel has gathered sufficient evidence.

Below are some examples of different question types that may be asked during a competency-based interview.

Question Type	Description
 Behavioral	Give me an example of... * Please describe a situation when you had to... and how did you go about it?
 Comparison	In relation to leadership specifically, what makes you stand out as compared to others around you? Which of your previous experiences working in a team was the best as compared to others, and why?
 Appraisal	What was the feedback you received from your team members? What feedback did you receive about your role in this project?
 Probing / Follow-up	What happened next? What were your specific responsibilities in the team?

A competency-based interview typically lasts 30 to 60 minutes. Depending on the location of the applicant and availability of communication methodologies, a mix of in- person, video or phone interviews may occur.

Checking application status

Applicants may check the status of their application in inspira by clicking My Applications. Each status has the following meaning:

- Draft means the applicant has started a draft application but has not submitted it.
- Applied means the applicant has just applied to the job opening and the application is being screened through inspira.
- Under Consideration means the application has been screened by inspira, and the recruitment process is on-going.
- Recruitment Completed means the process has been completed with the selection of another applicant.
- Rostered means the applicant was recommended for the job opening although he or she was not selected.
- Selected means the applicant was selected for the job opening.
- Filled from Roster means a rostered applicant was selected.
- JO Cancelled means the job opening was cancelled.

Application result: Selected

Applicants who are selected for job openings are notified by e-mail. Selected applicants must confirm their continued interest and availability via e-mail within five business days of the notification. If no confirmation is received within five business days, another applicant may be selected.

Application result: Rostered

All applicants who are recommended for selection and roster placement for job openings and generic job openings, including the selected applicants, are placed on the roster, which is a pool of preapproved candidates for subsequent job openings at the same level and with similar functions. However, placement on the roster is no guarantee of a future selection or appointment. The scope of the roster may change as determined appropriate by the United Nations Office of Human Resources in the Department of Management Strategy, Policy and Compliance.

Roster candidates receive an invitation to apply when job openings are advertised where they are preapproved for selection. Roster candidates are encouraged to apply as early as possible because the hiring managers may select roster candidates during the posting period for the job opening.

To view roster memberships and details including the level, status, membership start date and associated job titles, click My Roster Memberships at the top of the inspira home page. Candidates may withdraw from the roster or put their roster membership on hold on this page. Once candidates withdraw themselves from a roster, the roster membership cannot be reinstated.
